

...making excellence a habit™

Without Surveillance Certificate do not buy any new gas equipment as this is illegal

EC Surveillance

Fixing of the CE logo and the Notified Body number on an appliance is only allowed when an appliance has been Type tested and factory surveillance is carried out on an annual basis.

Surveillance involves checking that factory production and assembly methods are maintained according to the standards.

Without annual surveillance, it is illegal to attach the CE logo and Notified Body number on an appliance.